AN OUTRAGE

Justice Cletus Byrnes, of Mendocino ,fined Philip Mallory, who runs the dive at Pine Beach where the young boy was sold liquor which resulted in the killing of Enrollee Sylvester, $25. It is to be hoped this action is disregarded and an investigation of a real kind may follow. Fining a keeper of a joint like that operated at Pine Beach in which a murder results because of selling whiskey to a minor, $25, is an insult to any alleged administration of justice.

RESORT DEATH INVESTIGATED –ARREST MADE

Pine Beach Joint To Face Loss Of Its Liquor License

'CLEAN UP' DEMANDED

Dives About County, People Urge, Be Driven Out

WHAT FACTS ARE

A number of CCC enrollees were at Pine Beach resort, drinking. Mr. Sylvester, the boy murdered, was trying to keep the boys straight. He was in the act of getting a CCC boy, under age, to stop drinking. Mr. Brink injected himself in the situation and a fight followed in which the youth who was endeavoring to keep an under-age boy from becoming more intoxocated had his jaw broken by Mr. Brink, the story goes.

(Fort Bragg Advocate)

The district attorney's office, after two weeks of careful investigation, has filed a complaint against Fred Brink of Fort Bragg charging him with manslaughter.

What Story Is.

This charge is an aftermath of a fist fight at Pine Beach, south of town, in which Mr. Brink is alleged to have struck a CCC boy by the name of Anthony Slyvester on the jaw. The force of the blow broke the jawbone, and the next day Mr. Sylvester was taken to Sutter Hospital, Sacramento, where he passed away.

The district attorney's office * * * has been working on the case, quietly, ever since the death of Mr. Sylvester. Mr. Brink was sent to the county jail in Ukiah and a hearing will be held in Justice Court.

People Want Results.

The case was dragging until coast citizens began to complain and, about that time Liquor Control Officer Tib Fisk, who had been absent on State business in the northern part of the district, returned and began an investigation. Immediately everyone drawing an official salary got active and results began to be observed. The killing should not be allowed to end in a fiasco, punishment should be meted out to the killer, the joint that sold liquor to a minor should have its license revoked and there should be a general cleaning up of low-type resorts on the coast.

Hearing Today.

On a complaint sworn to by Officer Reno Bartolomei, charging manslaughter, bond was set at $1000 and this was furnished.

EDUCATOR WILL MAKE ADDRESS

Stockton Orator Is On Forum Program This Evening

Each organization in Ukiah has been asked to sponsor, at some time during the year, an Americanism meeting, and the month of December has been allotted the Business and Professional Women's Club for this patriotic work. The Club has asked permission to support the Forum Wednesday evening (tonight) as its contribution to the Americanism program. The speaker will be Tully C. Knowles and the subject, an apt one, is "The Case For Democracy: Is It Eclipsed, Retreating, or Defeated?" The Business and Professional Women are proud to present a distinguished speaker on a question of keenest interest and are hoping the public will take advantage of the opportunity to hear a splendid program.

Chamber Commerce Appoints Committees

An election committee named at the most recent meeting of Ukiah Chamber of Commerce included Dr. Walter Rapaport, K. N. Hengeveld and R. A. Enright. On a committee for the judging of outdoor Christmas trees, Mrs. Louise Bernhard was named chairman, and other members are Mrs. Bess Eversole and Elmer Purdy.

Mrs. Henry C. Spurr is recovering nicely at her home from a severe attack of influenza.

LITTLE GIRLS MUST RECEIVE PUBLIC HELP

Too Many Assaults Recently Go Unpunished

EXAMPLE IS REQUIRED

Relentless Prosecution Routed Coast Degenerates

In recent years Fort Bragg has been the scene of a number of sex cases involving girls of tender years and, probably due to the fact no severe sentences have been imposed on the few who have been convicted, crimes of this nature are on the increase.

Just One Way.

The girlhood of the county should be protected against degenerates, at all cost, and the only way to do so is to impose long sentences and, when it is warranted, the death penalty. In other years this county, it will be recalled had practically no assaults on girls. Former Sheriff R. R. Byrnes made vigorous war on sex criminals—the last case of the kind was that of Tom Lehew who, after assaulting a little girl about the age of the children mentioned in the present Fort Bragg charge, was sentenced to death by Judge H. L. Preston and was executed at San Quentin.

The Present Charge.

Of the latest alleged crime at Fort Bragg along that line The Advocate says: "Harl O. Chapman, local man, is at liberty on a $500 property bond, pending an appearance in Judge Gildersleeve's court to answer a charge brought against him for an infraction of the Welfare and Institution Code. According to the complaint, filed by Chief of Police Worden, Mr. Chapman accosted two young girls, seven and nine years of age, in a downtown office and made improper advances toward them. The children complained and a complaint was immediately drawn up. Mr. Chapman was arrested and brought before Judge Gildersleeve who placed the man under bond."

FRIDAY SHOW BY HI SCHOOL

A Big Audience Will Greet Students Is Certain

Friday, the 13th—not generally conceded to be a very lucky date, but this time it's different, even for the superstitious. Check it on your calendar, as a reminder of the grand evening ahead, when seniors at Ukiah high, present their class play, "June Mad." Stage Magazine voted it sixth on the list of ten best plays for 1940, and indications are the local players will make that a well-deserved rating. Practice has been going on the past month, and now the cast is ready, with hopes of playing to a large audience Friday night.

Tickets Sell Well.

Tickets are being sold by students and are also on sale at The Maple Cafe; don't delay in getting them, for you won't want to miss "June Mad," which features Helen Gibson and Bob Sandelin in leading parts, and a cast which includes Betty Ann German, Douglas Clendenin, Rodney Pacini, Gene Davis, Mary Dale Folsom, Bud Smith, Rene Sanchez, Vernice Humphrey, William Rampone and Alma Giannoni.

PAY RAISE FOR 279

Word came to The Republican Press last week from Senator G. M. Biggar belated Christmas presents of back pay checks will be received early in January by 4005 state employes under terms of a $393,282 legislative appropriation passed last week. The pay increases, some retroactive to 1939, will go to general fund employes receiving less than $150 per month. The number of employes at Mendocino State Hospital who will benefit by the new legislation will be 279.

TAX "STRIKE" IS ADVOCATED BY LAKE MAN

Farmers Are Wearied Of Labor Fights And Losses

SEE LEGAL ABUSES

Claim Statutes Prevent Children Aiding Parents

L. J. Shuman, Lakeport resident and forceful member of the Lake County Associated Farmers Unit of the State organization, made, says The Lakeport Bee, the front page of most all state daily newspapers when he proposed a farmers' tax strike at the Associated Farmers Convention held in Fresno last week. Mr. Shuman stated at the convention, "if the farmers stop paying taxes we can get any law passed we ask for."

Would Explain Finances.

Earlier Mr. Shuman demanded a complete financial report be prepared by the organization "to show the world we are not stooges for the corporations." Mr. Shuman made this demand when a report on the financial condition showed county units had contributed less than half the funds received by the state organization. Mr. Shuman said the financial report should include "all expenses of the state organization and county units to show farmers are shouldering the cost of this movement, and not the corporations of allied industries."

To Fight Racketeers.

The farmers' "antisecondary boycott" resolution, aimed at what the convention called "labor racketeers," was passed unanimously. The farmers claimed secondary boycotts — in which strike-affected produce is branded "hot cargo" by unions sympathetic to the strikers—often is ruinous to agriculturists when applied against perishable crops.

To Study Relief.

The resolution suggested a study to "consider marketing control of agricultural commodities be it through grower-controlled processing, packing or distributing plants located in the country; closer co-operation with those now performing these operations; diversion of purchasing and selling to those communities, states or areas open to the free flow of our products, or through legislative relief."

Children Aid Barred!

The convention passed a resolution requesting a change in child-labor laws to permit parents "to properly train children and create in them habits of industry." Delegates said under child-labor laws a farmer is not permitted to have his own child work on his farm. Another resolution proposed passage of a "reasonable law" insuring a day of rest on every seventh day and defining what constitutes an "emergency" when work on the seventh day may be necessary.

Walter F. Sandelin Is To Head Masons

Abel Lodge, F. & A. M., held its annual meeting Friday night and the following officers were elected for the ensuing Masonic year: Walter Sandelin, master; Guss Wallach, senior warden; Mervin Perkins, junior warden; Russell Ford, treasurer; Elmer Hopper, secretary, and C. M. Mannon, Wm. Bromley and Hale McCowen trustees. It was decided to hold installation Saturday night, January 18, and Leslie Wood, Grand Senior Warden of California, will be the installing officer.

More Merchandise Than He Has Space

Did you ever hear of a merchant packing and storing good seasonable merchandise in order to make room for some special stock? Well, that is just what Morty has done. Some months ago Morty ordered what is probably the largest and best selections of high-class holiday merchandise and when it arrived he discovered the only way in which he could display it was to store his general stock. Morty has, beyond question, the most exclusive lines of high class holiday merchandise ever brought to Ukiah. Some of the goods on display can only be purchased in smart, large city stores and still Morty is selling these goods at city prices.

WEALTHY PENINSULA MAN BUYS THE OLD 'DOC STANDLEY' RANCH

Show Place And Game Refuge Will Be Provided—Larry Adams Sells Fine Big Band Of Sheep With Property

What is still sometimes called the "Old Doc Standley Ranch" in Sherwood Valley has been sold by Larry Adams to Marshall Hale Fisher, of Hillsborough, San Mateo county. Only people of wealth can afford to live in Hillsborough and it is reported Mr. Fisher will make his Mendocino county ranch his summer home. He also contemplates making some extensive and expensive improvements for the present residence which, while good enough for local ranchers, is not large enough to entertain many guests who are used to luxurious surroundings.

To Run Preserve.

The ranch contains 3000 acres of deeded land but, in addition, has 100,000 acres of timber and brush land under lease that belongs to a big lumber company and is inhabited by all kinds of wild animals, including bear, which annually are charged with killing sheep. But this will be an added attraction for the new owner, for the ranch will be a private hunting preserve. Mr. Adams had the ranch well-stocked with pedigreed sheep and cattle and these were included in the sale. Mr. Fisher is not a practical rancher and will be compelled to employ a considerable number of men to operate the ranch and act as game wardens. Men in Mr. Fisher's class always pay the highest prevailing wages and naturally get the pick of men to work for them.

Has Much Feed.

This has been considered one of the best stock ranches in the county as it has a sufficient acreage of both summer and winter range. There are several hundred acres in Sherwood Valley devoted to raising hay and feed and on the ocean side there is rarely any snow during winter months. The Frank Clarke ranch joins it on the north and almost everybody knows its reputation and the two places are almost identical for stock raising purposes.

ARMY BOMBER CARRYING 6 DROPS INTO CLEAR LAKE—ALL ESCAPED

Army ambulances passed through Ukiah late Monday enroute to return six injured flyers to Hamilton Field, following an airplane crash that afternoon near Soda Bay. The six army men had been engaged in manouvers and about 3:30 p. m., due to circumstances not yet made known, their monoplane crashed in the waters of Clear Lake. Fortunately, because of shallowness of water at that point, and hasty arrival of rescue parties, one of which was headed by Sheriff Taylor Day, the men escaped drowning. The aviators were removed to the Gopsovitch summer home on the lake shore and given emergency treatment for immersion, while a call was sent to Hamliton Field and ambulances were soon on their way north from that point. Late last evening the plane was being removed from the lake.

MERITED HONOR FOR M. J. BURNS

Local Assemblyman Is Considered Pro Tem Speaker

Michael J. Burns, of Eureka, who is probably closer to the common man than anyone in this part of the State and who represents Mendocino, Humboldt and Del Norte counties in the State Legislature, is being considered for a deserved honor, according to advices from Sacramento.

Michael J. Burns
Joint Assemblyman from this District who is regarded as likely to be Speaker pro tem of the Legislature.

Ran Well Here.

Mike Burns was given over 1700 majority in this county at the last election and is regarded one of the best friends, on all solid matters that come up in the lower house, the ranchers can have.

The Capital Gossip.

Speaking of Assemblyman Burns' chances for the pro-tem speakership a message from Sacramento says: "The expected re-election of Gordon Garland as speaker of the State Assembly at the 1941 regular session may lead also to the selection of Michael J. Burns, veteran Republican of Eureka, as speaker pro tem, legislative leaders say.

Both Parties Favor Him.

Members of the "economy bloc" of Democrats, whose alliance with Republicans made possible the election of Speaker Garland at the first special session this year, were said to be favorable to Mr. Burns. He also is popular with many regular Democrats.

GETTING READY FOR BIG BALL

Annual Event Firemen Put On Now Approaching

Everyone welcomes a chance to celebrate and that's why we're glad New Year's is even closer than just around the corner. No need to ask how to celebrate, for the annual New Year's ball, sponsored by Ukiah Firemen, has provided the best possible answer to that question for 61 years.

Long Ago Started.

The sixty-second will be marked Tuesday, December 31, at Grammar School Auditorium, by dancing from nine until two, with music by Joe Schurman's orchestra from Santa Rosa.

Welcome New Year.

The decorations will be gay and so will the crowd and favors will be as noisy as possible, so there can be no doubt when the clock strikes 12. That's the signal for the sentiment which accompanies the farewell to the familiar old year, and the entrance of the bright New Year. And when that happens, we want to be right among our nearest and dearest friends, to exchange the glad wish, "Happy New Year." We will be, too, if we attend the Firemen's ball, for that's where we are sure to find all our friends the eve of December 31.

Plan Early Dinners.

Many are arranging parties to meet informally earlier that evening and it appears there's going to be a goodly number keeping the traditional rendezvous in the same old place, same date, same time, when the band plays "Auld Lang Syne."

HAS RESIGNED

WILLITS, Dec. 9.—The Industrial and Agriculturaal Fair held at the W. I. C. Club building Friday proved larger and better than even the promoters expected it to be. There were a large number of splendid exhibits of produce, minerals and timber products gathered in this locality and every citizen marveled over the splendid displays. That night the members of the Women's Improvement Club served a bountiful dinner in their banquet room and a nominal charge was made.

Heart Attack Victim.

Dallas W. Hearsts, 48, died almost instantly following a heart attack Saturday. Mr. Hearsts and his wife lived on a small ranch a few miles west of Willits and on the Willits-Fort Bragg road. Deceased was stricken early that morning and Mrs. Hearsts had to walk a considerable distance before she could summon someone to call a doctor. When Dr. R. A. Babcock arrived at the home he pronounced Mr. Hearsts dead and expressed belief the stricken man died almost instantly. Born in Shreveport, Louisiana, a large portion of his early life was passed in the U. S. Navy and he located in Willits in 1929. Shortly afterwards he married Cora Workover. The funeral services were held Monday, Rev. James Hume officiating and the remains were laid away in the Sawyers cemetery.

Keep Plane Here.

Harry Hack and Charles Cruger, both residents of Fort Bragg, own an airplane which they have been keeping at the Santa Rosa aviation field. They have been prevailed upon to transfer their plane to the Willits aviation grounds and John Cross, who has just received his private pilot's license went to Santa Rosa with Mr. Hack and brought the plane to Willits. Shortly after landing here they decided to fly to Covelo where they also have a splendid field. Following this they

MONTE REID IS WELL ADAPTED

Local Resident May Be Member Of New Commission

The California Sportsmen held a two days convention at Fresno last week and Monte Reid represented Mendocino county. Many matters of interest were discussed the most important of which is what is going to be the set-up of the new State Fish and Game Commission. The voters passed Amendment 8 at the recent election by a large majority which will do away with the old commissioners who were appointed by Governor Olson but were never confirmed by the legislature. This was fortunate for but recently an ugly scandal was exposed when it was proved Commissioners in a gay party used State Fish boats to make pleasure jaunts to Mexican waters.

Will Deny Approval.

According to law the new commissioners are to take office January first and the Governor has the appointment. Should he reappoint the old commissioners the legislature is sure to refuse to confirm the appointments for they are not suitable persons.

A Good Man.

Under the new set-up the state will be divided into well considered districts of which the Redwood Empire is one. Monte Reid is probably as well qualified for this position as can be found and it is hoped Governor Olson may name him.

Meeting This Evening.

Tonight, Wednesday, all sportsmen living in this vicinity are invited to attend a meeting at The Maple Cafe where several matters of vital local importance will be considered and also participate in a buffet lunch which will be served without charge.

TAKE NO CHANCES

Due to the epidemic of influenza and sickness in so many homes and as a precautionary measure — Dr. Edward Miller is asking citizens relinquish social visiting and public gatherings until the emergency is past. Dr. Miller has taken these steps in order infection would remain under control. The Covelo Women's Improvement Club quickly co-operated by canceling the regular meeting date of Saturday.

COVELO, Dec. 10.—Once a year the Farm Bureau membership holds a turkey banquet and Monday was its night to be host to a number exceeding way over five score. The affair was held in the grammar school auditorium and soon after the hour of seven, the big turkeys had been carved and quickly served—hot—with dressing and all the fixin's, from delicious home-made fruit salad to the same kind of assorted pies. Students from the high school agriculture class deserve complimentary recognition for the courteous manner in which they served the viands and later clearing the tables so quietly during the program. The overgrown two-deck pie wagon was not a delicate piece of furniture, but Jack Franklin handled it with ease and knew his pie, serving each their choice. Decorations of toyon berries and pine greenery was the work of Mrs. Chas. Rice. The Stars and Stripes centered the footlights with speakers' table below. On Mrs. Elmer Bauer and Mrs. Andrew Begley hangs the honor for the success of the banquet. For half hour of comfort and relaxation, following the final course, "A Symphony of Industry—Steel" was shown on the screen. It was an educational picture where men and steel provide a nation its luxury and necessities as was shown by the enormous steel mills in exciting molding operations.

Real Pie Consumers.

Previous to the business session, Chairman Glenn Barrass gave time to a brief entertainment whereby R. T. Hurt was the winner in (I thought I'd die laughing) pie-eating contest, with Frank Weymouth. To be sure the blindfolded duo were a mess.

After The Prize.

The local bureau boasts a nice membership, but is out to win the county organization's cash award for the largest number of members. Stanley Pier, of Potter Valley, here last year in the interest of new members, again added able assistance with a demonstrative placard talk. Last year Potter Valley won second place in the contest with Lloyd Brush as their leader. Mr. Pier was immediately reminded Lloyd is a local product, meaning, of course, why they took second place. Dues for a family social unit are only $3 per year. The chief objective and immediate responsibility of the Farm Bureau is to restore and maintain assistance to American farmers.

Talked On Hogs.

R. D. Foot spoke for better agriculture outlook. Hogs should be good, cattle should be better, because there is a scarcity, he stated, on all livestock. The Jersey cow which was sold for beef to a butcher for $63, mentioned by Mr. Foot, was a cow sold several years ago by Judge G. R. Redwine at San Francisco stock yards.

MYSTERY MANS LONELY DEATH CLOSES BOOK

Strange Wanderer's Identity Will Remain Unsolved

HE AVOIDED EVERYONE

On Coast Two Years, Spoke To No One; Always Silent

An unknown man recently died in the Mitchell creek section of the Mendocino coast and Deputy Sheriff Ward M. Reis was called to investigate the death.

Had Change Of Mind.

A queer story, pieced together indicates a wanderer coming up the coast, seeking work, upon observing a cabin, seemingly deserted, decided to go inside and make himself a meal from provisions he had in his pack. The cabin was located near the Pelascini place on Mitchell creek. Tired, the stranger following a long day's walk, was in no particular hurry until, all of a sudden, his eyes fell on the form of a man whom he discovered was dead, then he became suddenly active and entirely devoid of hunger.

Call Deputy Reis.

Hurrying from the cabin the traveler began search for the nearest house with a telephone and had officers at Fort Bragg informed of his discovery. Deputy Reis went to the scene and found a man's body—and from all appearances he had been dead approximately three weeks.

Hid His Identity.

Mystery surrounded the situation of the dead man, as it had while he was alive. No one knows the dead man's name. He had been seen on the coast the past two years he made no acquaintances, asked no questions and from a thorough investigation, answered none.

Died On Floor.

The cabin was without furniture and the floor was used as a bed. There were no coverings for the man's body and exposure was given as cause of death. Deputy Reis assured himself there was no foul play. The unknown man was buried in Ocean View cemetery.

Without funds and, probably sick, the unfortunate stranger likely sought shelter during approach of night and died alone.

HOODLUM TRIO ATTACKED MAN

Lawless Gang Fined Following Assault Of Vicious Kind

An instance of cowardice on the part of a gang of three north coast tough young fellows developed last week at Westport when a gang of Rockport youths, Roy Pickrell, Vernon Bowen and Wm. Phillips, Jr., were brought into Judge Gildersleeve's court to answer charges of assault and battery. Mr. Pickrell and Mr. Bowen pleaded guilty, but Mr. Phillips was brought to Ukiah to answer to the probation board.

Took Over Car.

The complaint was filed by Wilbur White of Fort Bragg, who alleged the three "jumped" him. Mr. White was in the Westport section on radio business and the young men entered his car and were playing his car radio. When Mr. White completed his business he came to the car and asked the boys to get out. They refused and when Mr. White insisted, one of them "took a swing at him." It was then the other two piled on, according to Mr. White. Three older men, who were witnesses, stopped the fight.

Make Ruffianism Expensive.

Judge Gildersleeve fined Mr. Pickrell and Mr. Bowen $50 each and sent Mr. Phillips to Ukiah.

THE "INVESTIGATION" AT CHINO

GARDINER GRIFFITHS, a San Francisco newspaperman who knows what is going on in state politics about as well as any writer in California, in The Marina Progress the other day, commenting on the "shakedown" at Chino prison, said: "The current investigation over funds paid for the construction of the Chino prison, where the "honor system" was to predominate, illustrates the carelessness with which the public's money is handled. Details of at least two grafting operations have been known for months, still nothing has been done. In fact, when WPA officials were informed of one phase, all that transpired was the moving of one of its officials to another area, with no attempt made to curb further grafting. It is a fair bet, however, that even the current dissatisfaction over the Chino institution will pale by comparison with that to be manifested when the prison becomes operative. The prisoner really intending to reform asks no coddling; he only asks discipline fairly administered and a chance to resume his place in the scheme of things upon his release. The nebulous idealists who scream prison reform cannot seem to grasp that."

Because the writer was President of The State Prison Board at the time, it might be well for Mendocino people to be told what took place. Here it is:

The writer was informed a man named Joe Freeman had taken $23,000 from the architects. He did this on the plea he was close to the heads of WPA higher-ups and Washington officials and could get an additional grant from Washington for the construction of the Chino prison. The writer called an executive session of the State Prison Board and the architect acknowledged he had paid a "percentage" to Mr. Freeman. The Prison Board, at once, ordered all connection with Mr. Freeman severed. He was cut off from attendance at meetings of the Board. In other days he was always on hand when the higher WPA officials appeared before the Prison Board and had a great deal to say.

The writer investigated and found whatever money Joe Freeman got came from a Federal fund and a Federal, not a state, investigation would properly be the one to bring on an exposure. Immediately thereafter a man, showing credentials as an investigator, came to the writer and questioned him regarding the facts, intimating arrests would follow, if warranted. The writer gave the investigator all details and directed him to talk to the other Board members who were present and had heard the architect tell of the demand for the $23,000 for influence. Apparently the investigator did so.

Soon after that the writer discovered a brother of Joe Freeman, Maurice Freeman, was at Chino, employed as a "co-ordinator," his duties were "to see things ran smoothly between supply furnishers and contractors on the Chino prison." Immediately he ordered the discharge of Maurice Freeman. Two weeks thereafter he inquired if Maurice Freeman was still on the job and was told he was—It was urged Joe Freeman had a great deal of influence with the WPA higher-ups and, if Maurice Freeman was dismissed, it would complicate matters. The answer was to fire Maurice Freeman and, if this was not done, the writer would make a formal complaint to the Federal District Attorney.

Maurice Freeman was fired.

Following this a hope was felt something might be done to punish those involved in the scandal. Three men came to the writer, showed credentials and asked if I were willing to tell them the facts, again implying "something would be done." The writer explained, in detail, all the developments and directed the "investigators" see Prison Board Members McGilvray, Harvey and Abbott. Subsequently, in a conference of Board members, it developed the investigators had talked to all the Prison Board members and each of the members told the same story, but nothing was done, except Maurice Freeman was transferred to another WPA project and Joe Freeman is still a big shot in circles which claim to have influence in getting Federal funds for projects.

Button, button, who has the $23,000?

Sidelights of Sadness

Being incidents connected with California's State Prisons as observed by A. R. O'Brien, editor of The Republican Press, while chairman of the State Board of Prisons of California.

A STRANGE REQUEST OF A MAFIAIST

I disliked to be near him. He was a murderer who killed men for so much a job and he was bestial, in every way. Actually, he seemed to smell of death. He had something like $1600 to his credit at Folsom and, I am sure, it was the balance of $2500 he had been paid for "rubbing out" a victim in North Beach.

He had seven brothers and each had killed at least one man. The inmate I am writing about could not get away from the fact he had murdered three men. He, I believe, killed two others but proof at hand would not have obtained a court conviction. I recall the day some years back this convict had mentioned the fact they had "burned" his brother Pete in Massachusetts for "bumping off a cop." A brother, Tony, had been extradited by New Jersey authorities for shooting down a detective and, when they took the murderer back by plane, the Folsom man commented Tony should, if he got a chance, jump from the plane, as they were going to "croak him when they got him back and a leap from a plane would be an easier death than on the hot seat."

He gruesomely fasctinated me because he was such a human devil. I knew, as soon as I saw him he was a Sicilian. His long, thin nose told me he had come from no other part of that Italian country and, when I had learned his appalling bloodthirstiness I came to the conviction his murder instinct came from his Mafia ancestors who, a few years after the turn of the century, drenched Italy with the blood of their victims.

Mussolini wiped out the Mafia.

There are bad men in Folsom, probably as hard as you will find any place in the world, but none protested this Sicilian when he muscled in and took rank with the very worst of them.

I have known instances where, through pure hellishness and without provocation ,except they refused to become involved in acts of degeneracy, he has knocked down smaller inmates and with his rough shoes, stomped them in the face. We could not get at him because he so terrorized other convicts they would not testify against him, knowing he would wreak reprisal on them.

He made no withdrawals from his money. He spent nothing, although he always was well supplied with tobacco, candy, cakes and such other commissaries as were sold in the prison. He hi-jacked these from convicts who feared him, telling them he would not forget them, if they reported him.

One day I got a convict letter. When I had finshed reading it, I suspected there must be a mistake. I checked the name with Clerk Albert Mundt. The prison number corresponded with that of the name signed to the letter. Still I could not convince myself there was not, somewhere along the line, a slip-up.

It was from the murdering Sicilian.

This fiend incarnate must have made up his mind to be gruesomely humorous.

I had him brought to the Warden's office and I spread out the letter before him. "Did you write me this letter?" I asked him. "Yes—and I want you to do me a favor." He set his thin, cruel lips and the pair of eyes he had riveted on the men he had blasted into eternity, hatred reflecting, glared at me. This man, without pity, with soul seared with atrocities, whose very footsteps seemed shadowed by wraiths of victims he assassinated had made this request:

"I ask that you permit me to send $10 to (here he named a party in ——— Italy) who is caretaker of the grave of my Father!"

Letters To The Editor

Noyo, Dec. 7, 1940.
Editor The Republican Press:

Here is a story for your paper—the true story of Emma Quarteroni.

Emma Quarteroni is still as free as the wind that blows and this is what Emma says about her boy friend. Quote.

If all our California boys was half as nice as that one Nebraska boy you could be proude of tham. The case of Emma Quarteroni and W. E. Thomas was a knock out. Emma has not held any thing again any one, and says old men shouldent be so Love sick, above all the ones who has $650 to hand out so freely, such as the case of Thomas. Any woman is a sap if she dont get her share of all this free money, as Emma stated in court. Emma says if Will Thomas could spend his money on Wine and Woman she might as well have some of the rocks too. Emma quotes, Yess I Love Ed and no one will ever come between us, not even court, we are Better Pals now than we were befor even if Emma's boy Friend isent on the County Farm. Quote, We still Love each othere. Thay may take money thay may take the motorcycle. But they cant take Love.

So Long Folks.

Sincerely,
EMMA QUARTERONI,

LAST FORUM IS WELL ATTENDED

More Than Usual At Meeting Held On Wednesday

That interest in the Forums held at High School Auditorium is becoming keener was testified to Wednesday evening, when around a hundred townspeople attended. The question, "Shall America Declare War Now" was expertly handled by John Arthur Reynolds, who discussed in an unbiased manner, both sides of the question, and later turned over the session to open forum. Pertinent questions and answers were given by many in the audience, who showed themselves to be well informed on international questions. It was gratifying to see the attendance at Wednesday's meeting, and to note the active interest shown by those in the gathering.

County News

Loss of license will follow in every case where a liquor dispenser serves intoxicating drinks to minors in Mendocino county, if apprehended.

The Hotel Willits and Hotel Van, because of high cost of electricity at Willits, are installing a private electric light plant.

Begin to learn to write it 1-9-4-1.

Ukiah is quietly campaigning to get a large reservoir for municipal water purposes.

More than $300,000 has been expended by the P .G. & E. Co. on its Potter Valley power station.

Fort Bragg boasts large classes of aliens who are studying citizenship.

Do your Christmas shopping early.

An epidemic of influenza, which swept the county two weeks ago, is slowly abating, but many yet remain ill.

A big water storage project for Cold creek is rumored.

If you fail to read The Republican Press you will not get all of the news of Mendocino county.

Despite the laughable features of the "prosecution" of Emma Quarteroni, taxpayers are loath to see neglect in criminal prosecutions.

A worthless check writer has been victimizing storekeepers of the upper Mendocino coast lately.

Earl Coverston, who robbed a Northspur home, has been given nine months in jail. He is a deserter from the Marines.

Again the name of Ward M. Reis is being put forward as a candidate for sheriff at the next election.

Five men are mentioned for appointment as supervisor to succeed the late J. H. Halliday.

Classified advertising in The Republican Press rarely fails to get quick, satisfactory results.

Another disgusting sex case involving a man and two very small girls is reported from Fort Bragg.

Amateur thespians of Ukiah are to put on a number of shows during the winter months.

A southern Californian bet Ao Stornetta of Point Arena a truck load of oranges against a cow Willkie would win, but the bet has not been paid.

In Senator G. M. Biggar and Representative M. J. Burns Mendocino county has two excellent men in the legislature.

The Anglo California Bank is foreclosing on a large lot of property of the Glen Blair Lumber Co.

Unusually Large Lemon Exhibited

At The Safeway Store there is on display a lemon 19 inches in circumference, lengthwise, and 16½ around. It was grown in Lodi in the orchard of A. D. Hillman, father-in-law of Orville Coleman, of The Safeway vegetable and fruit department in Ukiah. The slip came from a tree of W. J. Mickey, of Lodi, who not long ago was featured for his large lemons in Ripley's "Believe It Or Not."

Ukiah Mortician Goes To Oroville

Cecil Fewel, formerly with Cleland-Schamber Mortuary in this city, has gone to Oroville where he is employed as manager of the Chapel of the Palms. The late owner of the business, W. M. Thomas, who passed away at Oroville Sunday, was a man of advanced years and recognized as the dean of morticians in the state, being the oldest active embalmer and funeral director in California. Friends here are pleased at Mr. Fewel's obtaining a fine position and wish him success in his new work. For the time being, Mrs. Fewel will remain here.

AT McNAB RANCH

Mr. and Mrs. John L. McNab and members of the family enjoyed the weekend at the McNab ranch south of town, returning to their homes in San Francisco Sunday afternoon.

A Ukiah Man's Son Is Caught In Draft

To one native son of Ukiah these days of preparation seem like the real thing. J. E. Pemberton, Jr., has been ordered into active service in the army at a new camp near Paso Robles. Thus he is suddenly separated from his wife and two daughters; also from his work as assistant County Forester of Los Angeles county. He was recently advanced in rank from captain to major in the Officers Reserve. Presumably his job in camp will be training of draftees.

SUGGESTIONS FOR YOUR CHRISTMAS TREE

To Keep It Green . . . Christmas trees can be kept fresh and attractive for several weeks by putting the cut end in a bucket of earth and moistening with a glass of water every day or so.

To Share It . . . Leave your shades open during the holiday season. Lighted trees shining through the brisk December air bring cheer to passersby and heighten the community Christmas spirit. The more the merrier!

AND TO BRING GOOD LUCK

Hang a savings passbook on the tree. Your initial deposit may be as little as $1. Yet this inexpensive, easily "bought" gift may start your boy or girl on the road to life-long thrift and success. What could be a better "good-luck" gift?

AGED WOMAN'S EXPOSURE MAY END FATALLY

Pneumonia Is Feared For A Redwood Valley Victim

AGE IS AGAINST HER

Was Thinly Dressed And Night Was Unusually Cold

Special Correspondence of The Press

REDWOOD VALLEY, Dec. 8.—Due to increased business at their store in the valley, Mrs. Roy Williams resigned her position at Montgomery Ward's store Saturday. Mrs. Williams has been working at the Ukiah store for two years and will be greatly missed by many local customers there.

The Harvest Dinner.

The local Grange held its annual dinner Friday evening. Seventy-five or more members and their families gathered to enjoy a delicious dinner and to be later entertained by the Grange Orchestra and several solo selections.

Aged Lady Lost.

Mrs. Mattie Roselle, aged lady who lives alone on her mountain home, got lost on her way back to her house Sunday after a brief visit with friends. Monday morning when Mrs. Gullickson arrived at the Roselle home, Mrs. Roselle was not to be found and after several hours searching finally located her wandering in the woods about two miles from her home. While at the present time Mrs. Roselle appears to have suffered no serious results from her adventure, there is a fear complications may develop and apprehension pneumonia may result is held by friends. The aged victim of the all-night exposure had not dressed warmly and the night happened, unfortunately, to have been one of the coldest of the season in the mountains. In addition Mrs. Roselle's strength was taxed by the exhaustion brought on by having to walk throughout the night.

A Church Affair.

The Christian Endeavorers enjoyed a joint dinner Friday night at the local clubhouse. Many from Ukiah and several other nearby communities joined in this gathering.

Chairman Selected.

The Christmas tree committee met at A. W. Simmons' during the week and Mrs. C. Goudge was chosen committee chairman. The exact date for the tree was not settled.

Injured On Motorcycle.

Edgar Johnson was seriously injured recently while riding a motorcycle in Stockton.

Mrs. Martha Brown and two sons visited her daughter and family, Mrs. C. J. Nauman, at Woodland, recently.

To Help Workers

A committee was appointed at the last C. S. S. A. meeting to help with the community Christmas tree preparations and has since been active.

Have Houseguests.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sparks and Shirley are passing several days at the Louis Recetti home.

Mrs. Vera Watson passed the holidays at Witter Springs with friends.

Frank and Matthew Hahner were Sunday guests at the W. H. Morgan home at Calpella last week.

FINE PROGRAM MARKED PAST PRESIDENT'S DAY

"Past President's Day" was theme of the Saturday Afternoon Club meeting last week, and the entire affair was delightful in every detail. The clubrooms were attractive in holiday foliage, gilded pine cones and bright red berries, with a pretty Christmas tree gracing the stage. In the dining room tables were centered with tall red candles, about the bases of which were arranged cones and berries to achieve a charming effect. Past presidents of the club entered the dining room first and were seated at a table reserved especially for them when the refreshment hour arrived. The afternoon's program featured singing by Herbert Cochrane, who presented "When the Autumn Leaves of Life Begin to Fall," "By the Bend of the River" and "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," and a charming reading of "Skylark," by Mrs. Louis Hildreth. Miss Gertrude Lawrence appeared not long ago in this play, which won high praise from critics. The theme is thoroughly modern, with enough depth of feeling and of humor interspersed to give it an all around appeal. Mrs. Hildreth's audience was delighted with her choice for reading. Past presidents made a gift presentation to the club, something useful and lasting, a reading stand with light attachment. Hostesses at Saturday's pleasant event were Mrs. Walter Higgins, Mrs. E. F. Hawn, Mrs. C. A. Bernhard and Mrs. K. T .Busch, with Mrs. J. H. Hansen in the role of program chairman. Mrs. Herbert Brooke was accepted as a new member of the club.

HOME FROM ORIENT

From the scene of conflict in China, Mrs. Florence Edmonds and son, James, have come here for a visit with relatives and old friends. They arrived last week on the Mariposa from Peiping, China, where Mr. Edmonds is with the radio division of the United States Navy, and where for the time being he must remain on duty. Mrs. William Stewart, mother of Mrs. Edmonds, and Mrs. Josie Szanik, a sister, along with other relatives, are enjoying a happy reunion with the traveler, who has not been home to visit for more than a year. Mrs. Edmonds plans to remain in Ukiah several months, after which she may make her home in San Diego, where Mr. Edmonds will join her, if conditions in China permit.

EMPLOYES PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pearce opened their home Saturday evening to employes of the Penney Store in their annual Christmas party. Decorations in the home were beautiful, the hosts having used the holiday motif to great advantage. Over the mantel were graceful fir branches with cones in the foliage and from the boughs were suspended a cluster of transparent red Christmas bells, lights glowing within them. Decorations of this sort were repeated on the dining room table and, in addition, tall red candles were used to center small tables set up for cards and later for refreshments. A lovely Christmas tree held gifts for all, guests having brought packages to exchange during the evening. More than a score enjoyed the delightful affair, each employee having been asked to bring a friend to join the festivities.

HONORED AT FAREWELL

To honor Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weisenheimer who last week left for the southern part of the state, workers in the National Youth Administration offices arranged a farewell party the evening before the couple's departure. About a dozen were in the group calling at the Weisenheimer home, bringing refreshments and games, which provided enjoyable diversion during the evening. Mr. Weisenheimer had been connected with the National Youth Administration here and in Lake county the past two years, and he and his charming wife will be missed by those who knew them.

FACULTY DINNER

The faculty of Ukiah Union Elementary School enjoyed a dinner at The Maple Cafe Wednesday evening. The table was colorfully decorated with giant red candles flanking a low centerpiece of Toyon berries. Mistletoe extended the length of the table and a little sprig of the foliage was in each of the gay candy baskets used for favors. The teachers discussed means of improving the school. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. George Butler and Miss Kathern Macklin.

HAD ANNIVERSARY

In observance of the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bernhard, a family dinner party was held Sunday. The hostess of the occasion was Mrs. Mabel Ames Smith and besides the guests of honor Mr. and Mrs. Chaplin Williams and James Williams were bidden.

O. E. S. PLANNING BEAUTIFUL CEREMONIES

High praise for perfection of program and beauty of decoration has always been merited by events arranged by Kingsley Chapter, Order of Eastern Star. Plans under way at this time for the local chapter's installation of officers, to be held Monday, December 16, indicate it will be another outstanding affair. Since it is a Christmas installation, it affords opportunity for using lovely decorative and musical themes appropriate to this time of year. Solosits for the evening will be Mrs. Margaret Byrnes and Mrs. Bernice Cober, and quartet singing will be presented by Mrs. Katherine Harvey, Mrs. Margaret Byrnes, Will Van Dyke and George P. Anderson. W. H. Brunner will preside at the opening of ceremonies and members of Jobs Daughters and Order of De Molay will assist in the program. Installing officers are Nina Banker and Mervyn Perkins, who will induct the following: Grace Toles, worthy matron; William J. Mellis, worthy patron; Hazel Harmon, associate matron; Robert Harmon, associate patron; Bess Eversole, secretary; Iva Mellis, treasurer; Katherine Foster, conductress; Hazel Anderson, associate conductress; Myrtle Rawles, chaplain; Irene Miller, marshal; Mrs. J. E. Scott, organist; Mrs. Leona Mazzoni, Adah; Hazel Gowan, Ruth; May Anderson, Esther; Grace Foster, Martha; Margaret Byrnes, Electa; Ina Branson, warder; Ethel German, sentinel. Fred A. Nassie is flagbearer. Plans include out-of-town guests belonging to the various chapters in Lake and Mendocino counties. These members and the Mendocino and Lake county association of officers will meet at The Palace Hotel Monday afterenoon at three o'clock, and will remain here for the evening ceremonies which are being anticipated with keenest interest.

TWO LEGION EVENTS

Two Christmas parties on successive evenings are being planned by the American Legion and Auxiliary. The first, on Tuesday, December 17, is for State Hospital veterans, and will be held at the hospital at Talmage. Mrs. Lillian Hurley is chairman in charge of the affair, and is being assisted in her work by Mrs. Elise Figone, Mrs. Minnie Sweeney and Cecil Silver. Assistance or donations from any service clubs or groups desirous of taking part in this program will be greatly appreciated. Clubs or individuals wishing to donate towards the entertainment program will please contact Mrs. Hurley at Ukiah 199-R. The second party for Legion and Auxiliary, set for Wednesday, December 18, and plans are under way to make it an "old-time" celebration for young and old. It will be held at the Memorial Building; there will be a tree, entertainment, games and dancing to add to the merriment. Alta Dillingham is in charge of entertainment and promises an unusual program. On the committee handling other forms of activity are Frema Mathews, Charlotte King, Bernice Faas, Cecil Silver, Don Alexander and Howard McCandless.

SOCIETIES MET

The Presbyterian Missionary Society had anticipated an interesting afternoon Friday, with Mrs. Ernest H. Moser scheduled to speak on her experiences as a missionary in South Africa, but the speaker wired she would be unable to appear, so the session proceeded without the scheduled talk. A brief business meeting was held and a box of toys and useful gifts was wrapped to be mailed to Eureka. Rev. Max Stowe, formerly located in Ukiah, is now in the north coast city, where he has found a little group of needy who will get much joy from the Christmas packages, which he will distribute there. At the close of the Missionary meeting the Ladies Society convened and did honor to Dr. Van der Las on his seventy-fifth birthday. Mrs. C. W. Bradford read a delightful tribute to the beloved minister, a verse she had composed especially for the occasion. Presiding at the afternoon tea service were Mrs. Julia Shinn, Mrs. J. J. Thomas and Miss Jessie Dewell.

VACATIONED IN SOUTH

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Carr are back from a two weeks motor trip, which took them through various scenic points in the southern part of the state. The couple visited first at the home of Mrs. Carr's sister in Long Beach, making the trip south via the coast route. With Long Beach their headquarters, Mr. and Mrs. Carr journeyed into Mexico and upon their return from there, made side trips to Hollywood, Los Angeles, San Diego, and passed a day at Downey at which place is located the huge Vultee plant, now strike-bound. The return trip to Ukiah was made via the valley, which provided a change in scenery from the trip south and rounded out a delightful vacation.

P. T. A. PROGRAM FEATURED MANY TOPICS

When it was found the scheduled speaker, Charles M. Shermerhorn, assistant probation officer of San Francisco, would be unable to appear at the recent meeting of the Twenty-seventh District, California Congress of Parents and Teachers ,a symposium panel was prepared by Mrs. J. H. Neblett, president of the organization. A member from each unit represented at the meeting in Upper Lake was called upon to take part in the discussion on "Self-Realization," and under this general heading a number of interesting topics were developed. Mrs. O. H. McNeil, District Music Chairman, reported on work being done in her department, and urged formation of community singing groups for local Parent-Teacher Associations. Suggestions on home safety were given in a talk on "Is Your Child Safe At Home," by Mrs. Flora Saxon. The presentation was arranged by Mrs. Roy Good, district safety chairman. An inspirational reading was given by Mrs. Henry Crabtree, president of Upper Lake Unit, who also made the opening address of the meeting. Mrs. Herbert Singley, District Health Chairman, addressed the gathering, stressing the importance of the health of the child and family. The next meeting will be held in Willits, January 23, with Mrs. P. D. Bevil, Citizenship Chairman, and Mrs. William H. Cox, Program Service and Founders Day Chairman, as guest speakers. A nominating committee will be elected to serve in selecting potential officers for the March election.

FAMILY VISITED

Family members from Plymouth and Point Arena were recently welcomed on a visit at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. D. Withrow. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ricks and Miss Melba Withrow had gone to the coast to celebrate the later Thanksgiving date with Mr. and Mrs. Spence Withrow and the entire party proceeded to Ukiah to call on Dr. Withrow, Mrs. Ricks' son. Other relatives were visited while here, and Mr. and Mrs. Ricks and Miss Withrow enjoyed renewing acquaintances in Ukiah, their former home.

Mrs. E. F. Hawn and Mrs. F. E. Oden motored to Santa Rosa Wednesday for the day.

SURPRISE PARTY WAS INSPIRED BY DOUBLE EVENTS

Inspirations for a recent social evening arranged by Kewanna Council were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wagner, who were honored at a housewarming, and Mrs. Katherine Nicholson, given a surprise farewell on the eve of her departure for Tucson, Arizona, where she will pass the holidays with her daughter, Mrs. C. A. Ball. Mrs. Nicholson was in the group calling at the Wagner home, where tables were set up and the gathering played cards, but she was unaware she would share in the honors. A beautiful vase was presented Mr. and Mrs. Wagner by Council members during the evening, and a delicious repast was provided later by the callers. While festivities were in progress, a tiny Christmas tree had been trimmed for Mrs. Nicholson without her knowledge and when it was brought in she was truly surprised. From each branch hung gay handkerchiefs, of every color and size, farewell tokens from the group, each of whom had brought one or more. The clever and attractive way of bestowing gifts brought much pleasure to the recipient. It was a delightful party and a pleasant way of christening the home on South Dora avenue, into which the popular honorees, Mr. and Mrs. Wagner have recently moved. Enjoying the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Mattern, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Figone, Mesdames Grace Heitz, Frances Crinella, Jennie Eberhardt, Elizabeth Wagner, Adeline Lovegreen, Jamie Dohring, Ann Miller, Katherine Nicholson, Minnie Sweeney, Fermor Howie, Nettie Chase, Miss Louise Baccaglio, Fred Bent and Fred Figone.

MUCH ACTIVITY

The past week has been an extremely busy one for Twenty-Thirtians. Thursday evening a number of members from the local club traveled to Napa to attend a banquet and meeting on the occasion of the official visit of V. G. Wolfe, national president. Saturday morning several Twenty-Thirtians went to Eureka, and more left that afternoon to attend the Northern California District Convention held in that city. Among those attending from Ukiah were Marion Hodel, George Hengeveld and Frank Branson.

TURKEY BANQUET

Berries and greenery decorated the dining room at Pauline's Cafe Thursday evening, to provide a cheery setting for the Eagles Auxiliary banquet. The turkey dinner was largely attended and at its conclusion the ladies adjourned to Steiert's hall where a social time ensued. A gift exchange was an enjoyable feature of the evening. Plans were made for the Christmas party to take place at the hall December 19, when the Eagles will be hosts.

TWO MATRONS HOSTESSES TO TWO SCORE

The Saturday Afternoon Clubrooms bore a festive scene in rich gold and holiday foliage Wednesday afternoon when more than two-score guests enjoyed hospitality of Mrs. Guy Redwine and Mrs. Louis M. Folsom in one of the season's most delightful social events. Individual tables were covered in gold paper cloths and centered with dark green fir foliage in which glittered gay Christmas ornaments, and about these pretty tables groups gathered at a delicious one o'clock luncheon arranged and served by The Maple Cafe. The guest list was a long one, and it was unfortunate nearly a dozen ladies were unable to attend due to illness. However, there was still a large gathering to enjoy the festivities and greet old friends informally while dining preliminary to an afternoon of contract. High scores at the conclusion of cards were held by Mrs. Stella Rea, Mrs. Lee Williams and Mrs. William Wadsworth, and to these three ladies went attractive first, second and third honors, respectively.

BUSY OFFICER

Mrs. Sylvia Alexander has been elected to the office of second vice-president of Lewis White Unit, filling the vacancy made by the leave-taking of Mrs. Walter Messick. Mrs. Alexander also serves on the Legislation, Membership, and Ways and Means Committees.

HARVEST DINNER

One hundred and twenty-five at dinner seems like a fairly large crowd, but according to Grange members the usual attendance at the annual Harvest Dinner reaches 200. Friday night when the banquet was held at Grange hall, nearly half the usual number were kept away by illness. However, the affair was a big success and tables were lovely with decorations of madrone and holly berry to add holiday color. A short business meeting followed the dinner hour and Third and Fourth Degrees were put on for 15 members, after which the gathering enjoyed a jolly social time and dancing to music furnished by Ruth Cooper. Election of officers will be held at the next meeting of the Grange.

RENEW ACQUAINTANCE

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jeffery, of Sebastopol, have been in Ukiah looking about with the idea of settling here. Mr. Jeffery is a brother of Mrs. Dick Strider and he and his wife are known locally, having made their home here in 1928 and 1929. Since leaving Ukiah Mr. and Mrs. Jeffery have resided in Sebastopol, but recently decided they would like to return to this community.

VISITED FATHER

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Mazzoni, Miss Rose Gibson and Miss Giovanna Bricarelli motored to Santa Rosa Saturday for a few hours visit at the home of Mr. Mazzoni's father.

MEMBERS NEEDED TO CARRY ON THE LEGION'S WORK

The need for patriotic service in building foundations for the future of America is being stressed at the present time by the American Legion as a whole, as well as by local Lewis White Post and Auxiliary Unit. Eligible men and women are being urged to join and help in the many activities carried on by the Legion for the purpose of making America a sound and secure country. The Auxiliary is concerned, to a great extent, with the welfare of America's children, who are its future citizens, and in order to be good citizens, must have a fair start in life. This means they must be given opportunities for building strong minds and bodies and developing right character traits. Working to provide these opportunities for youth, the Auxiliary stands side by side with the Legion, in promoting betterment of American standards. Eugene Schamber, Commander of Lewis White Post and Mrs. John Isnard, child welfare chairman of the Auxiliary Unit, wish to call the attention of all eligible men and women to the fact they are needed, and will be given chances for serving their country and which will make them happy to be members of the Legion and Auxiliary activities.

W. B. A. DINED

The recent Christmas meeting of the Women's Benefit Association was a great success, from the delicious turkey dinner which started the affair, through the business session, which included election of officers and filing of the yearly report, right down to the gift exchange and social hours which occupied the latter part of the evening. Six new members received into the group during the past year were honored at Wednesday's affair. They were Mrs. Lillian Rotluff, Mrs. Ina Tucker, Miss Phebe McKesson, Mrs. Blythe Hicks, Mrs. Alice Watkins and Mrs. M. Rogers. To the last two goes credit for planning and preparing the dinner, which served several purposes; that of honoring the new members, observing the birthdays of Mrs. Myrtle Rice and Mrs. Lorena Rains, and as a regular Christmas meeting. Mrs. Rice, still a member, although now making her home in Sausalito, was present for the occasion, and her daughter, Mrs. George B. Crane (Olive Rice) of San Francisco, had also been bidden to attend, but could not be here. Mrs. Crane is a recent bride, and the group had arranged to present her with a handsome wedding gift, which they sent down to her, when they found she could not attend the affair.

WAS SHOWERED

Thursday evening a group of friends gathered at the home of Mrs. William Bold (Ida Locatelli) to honor Mrs. Aldred Chavez at a dainty shower. The hours passed pleasantly in conversation and in the presentation of many lovely gifts which delighted the honor guest. Co-hostesses Mrs. Bold, Mrs. John Isnard and Miss Margaret Bordessa provided a delicious refreshment service for the 10 guests at the close of the evening.

DATE IS SET

The Community Players, recently organized, will make their bow to Ukiah audiences Friday evening, December 27, from the stage of The State Theatre. Manager Baughman, always in accord with new and good entertainment ideas, has been most co-operative with the group in arranging to put their plays before the public, and all feel it is a sound plan to incorporate this first play with the regular movie feature scheduled for December 27. "Statistically Yours," the chosen vehicle, is a clever comedy, excellently cast and not too long. All talent is local and much of it has turned out to be very good indeed, so the "first-nighters" who see the Community Players initial performance are promised something really entertaining. Practice goes on several nights a week and now properties and scenery are being gotten together for the presentation. Meanwhile other members of the group are working up another play, "The Wedding," to be directed by Mrs. Kenneth Coles. The cast for "Statistically Yours" includes Harriet Mercer, Connie Simoncini, Vera Clark, Earline Abbott, W. H. Brunner, Frank Branson, Floyd Rowland, Fred Church and George Eckman.

P. T. A. PROGRAM

Mrs. P. D. Wilsey presided at the recent meeting of Ukiah Parent-Teacher Association and an interesting program was presented under direction of Mrs. George Butler. On the program was a talk by Dr. Luke Gericke, of the State Hospital, Talmage, subject of which was "Effects of Physical Conditions on Human Emotions." C. B. Heryford, rural school supervisor, addressed the gathering on "The Child and His Emotions," and gave an explanation of causes of certain behavior among children. He stressed co-operation between parents and teachers in an effort to develop good character traits and in eradicating bad health. Three selections, "I Am An American," "Gypsy Love Song" and "Silent Night" were given by the Girls Glee Club, directed by Gene Corbett. During the afternoon refreshments were served by Mrs. E. L. Chelli, Miss Violet Elliott and Miss Hulda Wenglein.

LIONS DINED

Instead of the usual weekly luncheon Ukiah Lions Club held a dinner Thursday evening in the banquet room of The Maple Cafe. The business meeting was brief and an entertaining program was presented. Featured artist was Elmer J. Whipple, magician, whose home is in Santa Cruz, but who appears frequently in the Redwood Highway section where at club and lodge events his program of tricks is much enjoyed. Ten members from Fort Bragg dined with the local contingent and later the bowling teams of Ukiah and Fort Bragg Lions repaired to Vichy for a match.

WED AT RENO

Mr. and Mrs. Emil LaCombs are now at home in Sacramento following their marriage which took place in Reno, Sunday, November 17. The lovely bride is a sister of Mrs. Robert McGarvey, Miss Carol Brawn and James Brawn of this city and she formerly resided in Ukiah. Since graduation from Ukiah High School Mrs. McCombs has attended school in Sacramento, later entering the employ of an insurance company in the capital city. Mr. La Combs is on the staff of Hotel Senator in Sacramento.

WED LAST WEEK

A marriage having local interest was that of Miss Mary Grant and Harry Hilts, Jr., who were wed in Carson City, Tuesday, December 3. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Vyvyan Grant, who was present at the quiet ceremony. Mr. Hilts is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hilts and a brother of Mrs. James Brawn, also of this city. Good wishes are being extended by friends of the young couple, both of whom are well known locally.

GUILD PARTY FRIDAY

In the Guild hall a dozen ladies of the Episcopal Guild gathered Friday for a Christmas party, planned for 20 guests, nearly half of whom were kept away because of illness. Holiday decorations made gay the tables and there was a Christmas tree laden with gifts for members. The regular meeting was brief and the afternoon was turned over to a social time, the ladies gathering at the tables for tea, at which time distribution of gifts was made. Mrs. Blythe Hicks, Mrs. Norman Buhn and Mrs. Raymond J. Pearl composed the committee in charge of Friday's pleasant affair.

HOME FOR THE HOLIDAYS

Happy holidays are ahead for Miss Gertrude Dietz who left Ukiah Sunday morning to motor to San Francisco, from which city she left via the streamliner for Chicago. Her family resides there, and it is Miss Dietz' first visit home since last holiday season, so the occasion will be a joyous reunion. According to present plans Miss Dietz will remain with her relatives a month or two before returning to Ukiah.

BIRTHDAY HONORED

Birthday congratulations were in order Monday for Peter Richardson, popular young assistant manager at Penney's, and by way of celebrating the day with him a number of close friends gathered at the Richardson home on South State street that evening. A gift presentation was made and cards furnished diversion until the late refreshment hour, during which a large birthday cake was featured.

SEWING CLUB MEETS

Mrs. Lilburn I. Gibson will entertain members of the Wednesday Sewing Club at her home this afternoon at the last regular meeting until after the Holidays. Needlework will be the diversion followed by a tea service.

WELCOMED BY CLUB

Meeting last week, the Little Thursday Club welcomed back a former member, Mrs. Jack Smith, visiting here from Healdsburg. The group enjoyed a pleasant social afternoon, sewing and chatting, and concluded the meeting with delicious refreshments. Miss Arzelle Dennen was hostess and entertained her guests at the home of her sister, Mrs. Paul Hansen.

HAVE A SON

Charles Lewis Crawford III is the name of the little son who was born Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lewis Crawford, Jr., at Ukiah General Hospital Thursday, December 5. Dr. Stanley Rea attended, and friends are pleased to learn that mother and son are doing nicely. The baby is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Crawford, who are among those rejoicing in the recent arrival.

ARRIVED HOME

Supervisor and Mrs. Linus Miller are at Talmage again after having motored to the Atlantic seaboard. Efficient employe of the State, Mr. Miller merited the vacation after years of faithful work.

WILL CHOOSE OFFICERS

Sportsmen in the vicinity of Ukiah are especially urged to attend the meeting of Ukiah Sportsmen's Club tonight at 7:30 p.m. in the banquet room of The Maple Cafe. Reports of interest and importance will be made and, in addition, nomination and election of officers for the year 1941 will be held. A buffet supper will be served following the meeting.

Barney Schow Was Countyseat Caller

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Schow, of The Outlet, were doing Christmas shopping here last week. Barney Schow, now over 80 years of age, is a famous character of this county. For years Mr. Schow was known as "The Wood King" of Willits, operating extensively in the wood business and shipping a g reat quantity of wood to San Francisco annually. The veteran resident has a fine orchard on The Outlet and the apples he produces are rated among the best in the county.

HAVE A DAUGHTER

Captain and Mrs. Austin Rawles are receiving congratulations on the birth of a little daughter at Ukiah General Hospital December 3. Dr. H .O. Cleland was in attendance, and mother and baby are doing nicely. The little miss is the second child in the family.

2 Boy Musicians Turn Out Winners

Robert Sharp, music instructor in the local high school, and Lawrence Record, music instructor at Potter Valley High School, went to San Jose Saturday to attend a band and orchestra clinic. They were accompanied on the trip by Rodney Pacini, of Ukiah, and Marion Brush, Potter Valley, both outstanding in the music departments of their respective schools. Both boys tried out for first chair in the clarinet section and both proved winners.

SICKNESS INTERFERED

There was no basketball game for Ukiah High, scheduled to play at Healdsburg Friday and there was no dance as planned Friday night here at the High School. It was all due to influenza, going the rounds and disrupting business and pleasure alike. The last of the week there were over a hundred students out with the current illness.

TO LIVE IN VALLEJO

Mr. and Mrs. Harold LaPorte left Sunday to make their home in Vallejo, where Mr. LaPorte is employed. Their daughter, Eleanor, will remain here until the Christmas holidays, at which time she will join her parents.

Fred Loring has been kept home most of the week with an aggravated case of influenza.

Wilbur Sharp was in from Eel River Lodge Wednesday afternoon.

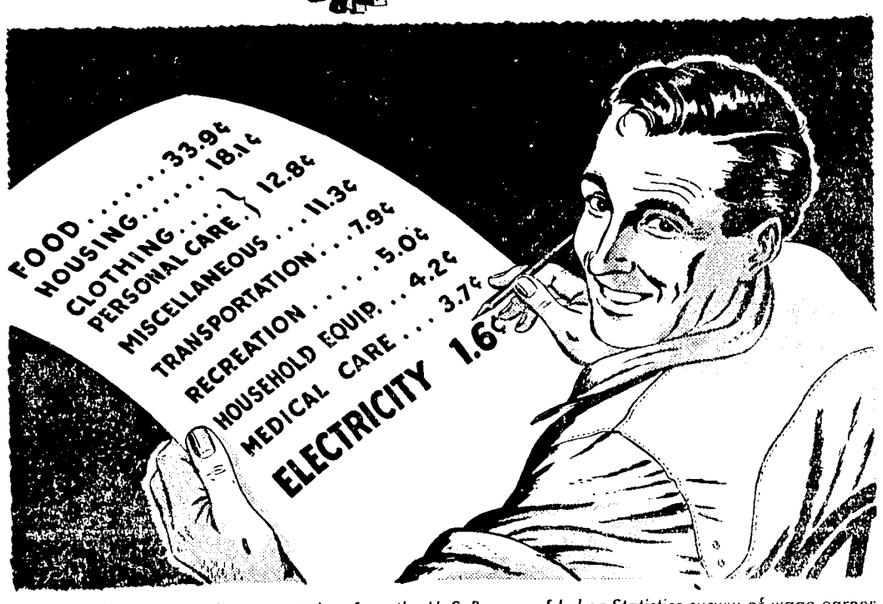
Where the American wage earner's dollar goes*...



*The cost of living data above was taken from the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics survey of wage earner and low-salaried family disbursements covering the period 1935-1939 in the thirty-three major cities.

The SMALLEST ITEM in the Family Budget is

ELECTRICITY

It is easy to take Electricity for granted in the home. Through every hour of the day as dependable as the rising sun electric servants in the home are at work. Time, refrigeration, vacuum sweeping, cooking, automatic hot water, radio by the hour, light, heat, washing and ironing are some of the items of their services. Yes, their services are used easily and abundantly because they are so convenient and cheap. ✠ Look at this list, showing how the wage earner's dollar is disbursed every month. The smallest cost item, right at the bottom, is electricity. That bottom position has been maintained for many years in California. Your electric rate, for example, has been cut lower and lower year after year. Since 1928, there have been six substantial cuts in the cost of electricity. Is there any other item in your family budget that have been so constantly made cheaper during this period?

made a flight over the country surrounding Willits. Several other outside private planes also landed at our local airport last week.

Married in Nevada.

Miss Maryann Steen and Aubrey Starkey of Nashville, Tennessee, were married at Reno last week and the wedding party returned to Willits. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Steen and has lived in this vicinity all her life and attended local schools. The groom is a recent arrival but is very well liked. The young couple will pass the winter here and then go to Tennessee where they will make their permanent home.

Mrs. Cranz Sick.

Mrs. Anna Cranz, aged 84, has been confined to Howard Memorial Hospital several days and is suffering bronchial pneumonia. Mrs. Cranz is a sister of the late Neil Anker of Ukiah and conducted a millinery business at the countyseat 50 years, retiring a few years ago. She is probably the oldest living member of Kingsley Chapter, O. E. S.

Put On Rodeo Program.

Willits Future Farmers of America have one of the best chapters in this part of the state and at the State Fair and numerous other events have won prizes and carried off honors in competition with boys from all over western states. Saturday morning they introduced a new feature when Dave Jensen, Jim Whiten and Art Safford, together with E. E. Safford, manager of Ridgewood ranch, and Herbert Cannon, agricultural instructor, spoke over KPO radio station at seven o'clock. The boys put on a splendid program and thus added some more to their laurels.

New Board Members.

The Willits Chamber of Commerce has elected new directors. The board consists of seven members and the last two elected are Dr. R. B. Smalley and Roy Good. The holdovers are O. R. Archer, Dr. L. M. Cox, Duane Bittenbender, Will Riley and Henry Haehl.

For Good Cause.

The Willits Lions Club is always doing something for the betterment of the community and its latest effort will be to hold public card parties, the gross proceeds of which will be used to fill baskets for needy families on Christmas morning.

Firemen Will Dance.

The Willits Fire Department will give its annual ball New Year's Eve. Committees have been appointed and the coming affair promises to be one of the best yet held here.

To License Peddlers.

At its last meeting the city council discussed passing an ordinance that would place a license on all trucks wholesaling merchandise about town. These people compete with local merchants who pay taxes and spend their money here—That is the argument.

Heard Fine Address.

A fair attendance greeted John Reynolds, of Berkeley, when he spoke at the high school auditorium Monday night on "Should America Declare War Now?" Mr. Reynolds presented arguments on both sides and was followed by a general discussion. Dr. Tully Knowles, president of the College of the Pacific at Stockton, will be next forum speaker and his subject is "Foreign Relations." He is said to be one of the best public speakers in California.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hardt, of Salem, Oregon, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wood and children of Yakima, Washington, were guests at the Ben Branscomb home last week.

Rebekahs Elect.

Lagunita Rebekah Lodge has elected the following officers: Alieca Cureton, noble grand; Irma Temple, vice-grand; Verna Towle, secretary; Irene Branscomb, treasurer.

DOWN ARGENTINE WAY!

This scintillating show starts its engagement on Sunday at The State Theatre. Produced in Technicolor by 20th Century-Fox, the lavish musical extravaganza has Don Ameche in one of his best roles, with Betty Grable and torrid-voiced Carmen Miranda, who makes her sensational screen debut. The production has eight song numbers, distinctively South American in flavor.

The influenza epidemic is subsiding and the first victims are now out and attending to business as usual. There have only been a few cases with pneumonia complications and none of these are serious for they are being well taken care of. REV. SPENCER'S MOOD CHANGES

Wife Killer Wishes To Quit England For America

Rev. John A. Spencer, who was convicted of the murder of his wife, Emma Spencer, following a mysterious drowning on Clear Lake in July, 1921, and served almost 20 years in San Quentin and was paroled last year with the provision he leave the country, has asked he be granted the right to return to America.

Dislikes England.

Rev. Spencer has been living in England since his parole from prison. In his request to Governor Olson he might return, Rev. Spencer said living conditions in England were very uncertain with bombs falling all around.

Was Safer Here.

Rev. Spencer realizes now he was safer surrounded by bars than he is in England with no bars.

Rev. Spencer became a philanderer while a youthful minister, the story in church circles ran and his married life, because of his alleged attentions to other women, created many household complications.

Drowned His Wife.

The crime for which Rev. Spencer went to San Quentin was the murder of his wife in a canoe in Clear Lake. Rev. Spencer was in love with a San Jose woman at the time and was caught in her home later, following the establishment of the fact Mrs. Spencer had been murdered.

Rocked The Church.

The prosecution of Rev. Spencer by District Attorney Churchhill brought about a church feud in Lake county, many church people contending Rev. Spencer was innocent. This belief later on, however, was dispelled. While in San Quentin Rev. Spencer worked in the library and was a model prisoner.

Were Here Fatal Day.

Rev. and Mrs. Spencer had been visiting in Ukiah during the day of the murder and appeared to be enjoying themselves. That night Rev. Spencer took his wife for a row on the lake and killed her.

date for a February visit to the San Francisco stock yards by interested members. A report given was the State Forestry Department will aid in the tree planting project at the grammar school. Fire protection and range control burning was mentioned.

Talked Soil Conservation.

Chas. W. Cleary, Jr., acting area conservationist, was a guest speaker from Ukiah, explaining Federal Soil Conservation Service and the method for forming districts or a legal body in order to secure the available Federal aid. The conservation programs bring attention to our vast natural resources.

New Officers Named.

Officers for the new year, having been recommended by the committee, were quickly nominated. They are President Glenn Barrass, Vice-President Elmer Bauer, Secretary-Treasurer Ernest Banks, Director H. C. Tuttle, Alternate Director R. T. Hurt.

Short-Rohrbough Wedding.

Cupid made a second conquest last month in the prominent J. S. Rohrbough family when, on November 2, it was Beverly who exchanged vows with Miss Helen Doris Dwyer at St. Peter's Episcopal church in San Francisco, and on November 23 it was Miss Audrey Short and J. D. Rohrbough who exchanged "I do's" at a simple 11 o'clock ceremony in the same church in San Francisco, with Rector John Collins officiating. Dispensing with traditional satin and tulle, Audrey wore a fashionable afternoon frock of misty green, a black hat with black accessories and a corsage of orchids and bouvardia completed her attire. Mrs. Wm. Stevenson was her sister's only attendant, her two-piece suit of grey was worn with matching accessories and her corsage was pink camelias. Dr. F. R. Carfagni was best man for his brother-in-law. The wedding party included Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Dwyer, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Rohrbough, Dr. and Mrs. F R Carfagni, the lovely Carfagni daughters, Misses Elizabeth Ann and Jane, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stevenson, Mrs. Carrie Illig, Lloyd Marshall, a fraternity brother of the groom, Mrs. Marshall and Mrs. Ed Himmerwright, close friend of the bride. Mrs. F. R. Carfagni hosted a five o'clock wedding reception and dinner at her Eleventh avenue residence. There was little time to spare for nuptial parties before a motor honeymoon south, but the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philo Short, of Bell Springs, who were not able to attend the ceremony, entertained at an elaborate dinner at the Sir Francis Drake; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stevenson acted as hosts for the parents. Back from the south in time for the big game the newlyweds were entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Marshall. The couple will make their home in Round Valley among many, many friends.

Had Town Forum.

The Senator G. M. Biggar residence was opened for the first Town Meeting of the Air. These worthwhile meetings are held each Thursday from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. If you cannot attend the broadcasts come for the discussions. Miss Ruth Walrad, high school history instructor, is proving a popular discussion leader.

See Happy Holidays.

More dates are being added each day to the crowded Christmas schedule. You will find them scattered through this column. Round Valley is surely topping the list with social functions for this gay season. To honor the very lovely bride, Mrs. J. D. Rohrbough, a reception tea in the manner of open house will be given at the ranch residence of Mrs. H. C. Tuttle tomorrow afternoon from two to four p.m. Mrs. Wm. Stevenson and Mrs. Tuttle will be hostesses.

Had Severe Fall.

Chas. Rice was critically hurt early in the afternoon on Wednesday at his West Linda Vista Farm—the result of a fall when loose hay gave way and he fell backward about eight feet onto the stanchions. The seriousness of his injury has not been determined although he is helpless and his condition is very critical.

Trip To Southcoast.

During a pleasurable weekend motor drive to the coast, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Hill and Tommy, Jr., and Mrs. Hill's attractive mother, Mrs. C. R. Norton, were guests of the Alfred Bishops at Point Arena. Mrs. Hill, a member of Augusta Chapter, was so pleased to attend O. E. S. installation ceremonies with her father, Orrin Linscott at Point Arena. Leaving here Mrs. E. V. A. Murphey made the party a foursome for a visit with the Leroy Woodheads at Shore Acres near Albion. Mrs. Norton joined them at Irvine Lodge.

Foretells Christmas.

Covelo commercial stores' holiday windows come forth this week with gift merchandise. The deep decorative red cellophane fringe and bells are so pretty at day or night time. Moore's, too, have personal gifts for all the family.

Visited Countyseat.

Yesterday the H. C. Tuttles drove to Ukiah and were guests in the G. W. Davis household. H. C., a wide-awake farmer, attended the regular monthly conservation meeting and the Mrs. climaxed the Christmas detail shopping.

Outline Kindness Campaign.

Mrs. Clyde Riffe president of the Mutual Aid Society was host Tuesday evening to a large group of members at her home. Plans were made for their annual Christmas boxes for needy families. This young group is also sponsoring a bazaar to be held in the Biggar Building December 19. All sorts of hand-made fancy work suitable for holiday gifts will be found there. Mrs. Riffe's retreshments were homemade popcorn balls and candy and choice red apples. Mrs. H. C. Tuttle will entertain the members at a Christmas party in her home December 17.

On Prospecting Trip.

Here from Willits Wednesday was W. T. Whitney and Judge C. A. Larson, for the purpose of looking into manganese properties on Eel river. During the World War eight cars of manganese were shipped out of this section.

Was Dinner Hostess.

Mrs. G. M. Biggar entertained at dinner one evening for Miss Ruth Walrad, Miss Clara Maynard, both members of the high school faculty, and Mrs. E. V. A. Murphy.

Took A Chance.

Lawrence Conner, an agriculture pupil at the high school, has a couple of badly cut fingers, the result of a planer machine mishap. The accident was no fault of instructors, as safety lessons and warnings are understood by each student.

In The South.

Departing yesterday, Senator and Mrs. G. M. Biggar are leisurely driving to San Diego, where Senator Biggar will work with Senator Ed Fletcher preparing highway legislation for introduction at the January session.

From Irvine Lodge near Longvale, C. R. Norton, was a brief visitor at Hotel Covelo. The Nortons are domiciled for the winter at this pleasant resort.

Wm. McDuffie, large land owner in this district, returned to Los Angeles after a business visit here.

With Aged Invalid.

Visiting her aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Travis at Lathrop is Mrs. Wm. McColloch. Mr. Travis, oldest and last of the brothers, is in poor health.

Hostess To Visitors.

FRANK B. COOK WAS STRICKEN IN A WALTZ

Disregarding Orders Of Doctor, Rancher Suffered Stroke

Special Correspondence of The Press

ANDERSON VALLEY, Dec. 10. Mrs. Sarah Melissa Presley passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. I. C. Burke, December 2, following an illness of short duration. Mrs. Presley suffered an attack of influenza on Thanksgiving day and the effect of the disease was too much for her advanced years and frail health and she failed to rally. Services were held at Eversole Mortuary December 4 and were attended by a host of friends and neighbors while the many beautiful floral offerings gave mute testimony to the love and high esteem in which Mrs. Presley was held. Mrs. Presley has been a frequent visitor in this valley over the years and endeared herself to all she came in contact with. She leaves many warm friends who join her family in mourning her loss. Pallbearers were five grandsons—Carl Edwards, James, Harry, La Vern and Wayne Presley, and a great-grandson, Robert Van Dyke.

Native Of Missouri.

Mrs. Sarah Melissa Presley was born in Missouri March 11, 1853. She crossed the plains by oxteam and arrived with her parents, John and Sarah Crawford, in California in 1858. Her parents were originally from Kentucky. She was the youngest of 17 children and the last of the family to pass away. Mrs. Presley was the wife of the late James M. Presley, who passed away November 26, 1916, and the mother of nine children, seven of whom survive her. They are Mrs. B. Edwards, Kelseyville, Mrs. I. C. Burke, Boonville, Mrs. Alice McFaul, San Francisco, Claude M. Presley, Boonville, Charles Presley, Potter Valley, D. V. Presley, Boonville, and Harry Presley, Ukiah. She was preceded in death by a son, James Eugene Presley, and a daughter, Lillian V. Presley. Mrs. Presley leaves 17 grandchildren, 22 great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.

Lived Here 58 Years.

Of the 82 years passed in California 58 were passed in Mendocino county.

Get Stroke While Dancing.

While gayety was at its height Saturday night at the Grange dance Fate dealt a hand and left Frank B. Cook, one of this valley's most prominent orchardists and Master of the Grange, near death's door as the result of a stroke. Mr. Cook, who only recently took up dancing, was enjoying the new found pleasure and forgot to remember his physician's order to avoid exertion.

Was In A Waltz.

He was stricken while waltzing at 1:40 a.m., and although he automatically endeavored to keep in step his partner realized something was amiss and led him to a seat. Dr. N. Fuller Robinson was called and advised his removal to Ukiah Hospital and accompanied him over. Dr. Van Allen has taken charge of the case for Dr. Robinson. Mrs. Cook is with her husband. It is impossible to tell at this time what the outcome will be. It was a very unhappy ending to an otherwise pleasant evening. Mr. Cook's many friends wish him speedy recovery.
